Frequently Asked Questions about the Sale

Is my donation tax deductible?

Yes, we will give you a blank tax form. We do not set the value, nor list what is donated. This is the donor's responsibility.

What do we want?

Good, useable items that are not broken or worn out. We will accept clothing, but please do not bring items that are stained, torn or badly worn. Yes, we DO want books. We are also selling plants, so if you have any extras, bring them by, preferably on Thursday, May 24. We reserve the right to refuse donations.

What DON'T we want?

Please do not bring anything broken or with missing parts, carpeting, children's car seats, chemicals, console TVs or old-style TVs or computers with non-flat screens, flammable liquids, guns, large appliances or large pieces of furniture, lumber, magazines, mattresses/box springs, paint, tires or windows. We cannot sell these items, and must pay to have someone else haul them away. Plus, they take up a great deal of space.

Will you pick-up stuff?

We no longer pick-up items, as it was a huge drain on our volunteers.

When is the latest I can drop-off items?

We must stop accepting drop-offs at 3 p.m. on Sunday, May 20, in order that we have the time to ready the building for the sale.

Is there an admission to the sale?

On Friday, May 25, there will be a $3 admission charge until 3 p.m.

Will there be a bag sale?

Yes, on Saturday, May 26, at 3 p.m. We'll close the building at 2:30 to straighten up and then let shoppers back inside at 3 p.m. We provide the bags; everything you can fit in a bag is $3. The bag sale ends at 6 p.m.

Will there be a giveaway? Yes, from 10 a.m. to noon on Sunday, May 28. There will be a $1 admission charge.

Will I be able to put a "hold" on an item?

Sorry, all sales must be cash and carry.

Will there be food available onsite?

No, there is no room for the concessionaire this year, but our new location is near several food vendors.

What do I do if I want to volunteer?

Contact CCHS at 344-7297 or cuhumane.org or natalie@cuhumane.org or mlpayne@illinois.edu.

Is there any special help you need?

If you have a truck or van and are willing to help us with set-up on Sunday, May 13, and breakdown on Sunday, May 27, or Tuesday, May 29, that would be super helpful. The volunteers who work the sale are worn pretty thin by cleanup, so any post-sale help May 27-30 would be deeply appreciated.
